

I am still the king

lie to me
i'll hunt you down

i'll sing and sing
while you cry and cry i'll give you the light then i'll tear out your eyes don't give me no prayers and i won't give you no lies no matter what they say i'm still the king

it don't matter what they say, i'm not listening any more

lie to me

don't look into my eyes and you won't see what i've done i burned down the woods and boys it sure was fun i will tear all your prayers down one by one
